Her Next Mission Inc.

Helping women who serve discover their next mission.

THE PROBLEM

When the uniform comes off, too many serve alone.

Women are the fastest-growing Veteran population — and face one of life's hardest transitions with the fewest women-specific resources.

THE GAP WE FILL

Most support stops at a job. Transition is bigger than that.

What exists

Employment resources and crisis intervention — necessary, but they don't rebuild identity, confidence, wellbeing, or belonging.

What we provide

A whole-woman ecosystem: coaching, wellness, leadership, entrepreneurship, retreats, and lifelong community.

MISSION & VISION

Reclaim identity. Rebuild confidence. Discover what's next.

Mission

Empower female Veterans and first responders to reclaim their identity, rebuild confidence, and discover their next mission through coaching, community, wellness, and leadership.

Vision

A world where every woman who has served navigates transition with support, celebration, and a next chapter as purposeful as the one she closed.

OUR MODEL

Five Core Pillars

Transition & Identity

Who am I now? Reinvention, purpose, confidence.

Wellness & Resilience

Fitness, stress, burnout recovery, somatic care.

Leadership Development

EQ, communication, boundaries, voice.

Career & Entrepreneurship

Career transition, business, financial empowerment.

Community & Connection

Mentorship, peer support, sisterhood.

Outcome

Clarity, wellbeing, confidence, economic mobility, and belonging — the foundation of a successful transition.
